

Honor Elangomat Award Requirements

Revised by Austin Hibbard 2/13/16, Adopted February 2016 LEC

The Honor Elangomat Award is intended to honor those Elangomats who have shown extraordinary service as an Elangomat while serving candidates as they complete their Ordeal. With completion of these requirements, the Egwa Tawa Dee Lodge recognizes those who have shown commitment to their fellow brothers and the Order of the Arrow program. To be eligible for this award the following standards must be met:

1. Attend a full Elangomat Training hosted by the Elangomat Chairman or his designee. At this time, they will be considered a Trained Elangomat.
2. Serve as an Elangomat at two Ordeal Weekends hosted by Egwa Tawa Dee within two years of training specified in requirement 1. *An Ordeal Weekend, for the purposes of this award is the full induction sequence, from Friday Night before the pre-ordeal ceremony into Saturday Evening after the ordeal ceremony in which your clan participates, and including all four tests of the Ordeal.
3. They must demonstrate at least three attempts to contact the candidates from their clan. This must be done within the first six months of the candidates' ordeal. The "Official Progress Sheet" must be completed to suffice this requirement. The contact information for candidates can be obtained from the Elangomat Chairman.

This award can be earned by any active member within the Egwa Tawa Dee Lodge, including adult members. An active member constitutes as dues paid and in good-standing with the Atlanta Area Council.

Once requirements have been completed submit necessary paperwork to the Elangomat Chairman, Austin Hibbard.
