➤Announcements

→Fall fellowship: everything went well, special thanks to every one who helped with the ribbon shirts, drum stick making, geocaching scrabble, Great Egwa Race. Thank also to our health officer and cook team. We are hoping for more chairmen to help out in the future

→Brotherhood: we had new brotherhood members go through this weekend go through this weekend

→Trade-o-ree: will be September 23rd and 24th. It serves to support our campership fund. It'd b great for everybody to go and show their support at the service center.

→Adventure camp: we have 600 participants registered and 40 brothers signed up. We need more to help, last year we had 75 and it was tough. We are working with the NRA for shows, and we have many activities lined up. This is our lodge's fundraiser, if we don't work towards it, our program will be influenced by lack of money

→Fall Ordeal: November 4th thru the 6thl. We need plenty of elangomats. If people come out to Allatoona, please be active in helping with the Ordeal because of the limited space and resources. We need ceremony teams for Pre-O and Ordeal ceremonies. The schedule will be posted this week. There is a major alteration this year. Candidate check-in starts at 7 and will go until 9. if they show up after 9, we will not be able to help them because we must start ceremonies on time.

→NLS: November 4th thru 6th, in Hains city Florida, near Orlando. The deadline for sign up is September 21st.

→LLD and Winter Banquet: December 3rd at the Volunteer service center. there will be many training cells for youth and adults, including an official elangomat training cell, →Service Hawk Chapter reports will be due by the fall ordeal.

→Conclave 2013: is come up just over a year out, we are planning already and need members for the committee. This will be our first time as hosts for the conclave since 2005 and this will be the first conclave at BASR since 1996. Contact Bradly Jaquet for more information and questions.

→2012 NOAC: we are hoping to have over 100 brother to go this year. There will be more information at winter banquet.

→We need to keep records with units that are not going to summer camps and figure out why.

→The sign up form for the 2013 jamboree is already on-line. No deposit for youth to go, 10,000 staff members are needed, the OA is hoping for 750 staff members and the AAC needs lots of adults for our contingent troop, this will be the first NSJ at the Betchel Summit,

→Egwa Tawa Dee had 8 adult members on Summit corps staff

- Out-going Officer Corp
  - VCA: Thank you all for a successful year. I look forward to working with my successor and helping him with the programs I implemented.
  - VCP: Greetings from Michigan. Congratulation to those who went through brotherhood. Thank you to Allan Bufford for organizing fall fellowship. Congratulation to the new officer corp. Thanks to my adviser, John Crew, for helping me throughout the year. I am glad to have shared a great year with you all
  - VCC: Thanks to everybody who has worked with me for the past 2 years. Thank you to my Adviser, Mr. Brooks. Good luck to Austin as he takes over communications for the next year
  - VCIA: congratulation to all the new officers, I think you will do a great job. Thank you to every single one of you for letting me serve you in a higher capacity. Thanks to my fellow officer corps, they were a great help. Thank you to Watchu Chuppecat with the brotherhood ceremony, thank to Ms. Parker for running the ribbon shirt program and James Hancock for doing drum stick making.
- New Officer Corp
  - LC: Congratulations to all of our new Brotherhood and Vigil Honor members. I look forward with working with all of you again over the next year.
  - VCA: By the Allatoona Ordeal, I will have the qualifications for Quality Chapter finalized. They will be on-line. If any body would like to help with check-in duties, please let me know so that I will have a back up. Thanks to Allan Bufford for running a great weekend. We need everybody's help with the adventure camp. Please leave Woodruff as clean at possible and thanks to everyone who helped with the service project. We need people to help with the Trade-o-ree. Thanks to everyone who elected me, I look forward to earning your confidence
  - VCC: Thank you to all for electing me. There are currently 4 facebook pages for Egwa Tawa Dee. one of these are official and we ask them to be taken down. Also, if you have not received e-mails lately, please reassign your current e-mail to the e-mail blast.
  - VCIA: Thanks for electing me. We need teams to be ready for the up-coming ordeals. Please memorize the scrip, no reading or blue tooth. We could also use help through elangomating.
  - VCF: The trading post fell short this event, so we will work hard to make this up. The Trade-o-ree will be next weekend including a new rare patch available in the trading post. Please come out and help support the campership fund.
- Adviser remarks
  - LA: Thanks to everybody who helped this weekend turn out great. Please keep information up to date for communications. Please inform the VCC of the contact info of all the new chapter officers. I look forward to starting an Egwa Tawa Dee choir. I hope to see more participants if we continue having weekends as fun as this weekend. I believe that is what will happen soon. Everybody please take care and have a safe trip home.

→SA: everybody had a great weekend. Thank to our old officer corp and I look forward to working with the new one. Lets continue moving forward. The upcoming adventure camp is great. Let's also remember that for about half of the people there, this will be their first camp experience or only camping experience they get regularly as cub scouts. We had over 10, 073 people attend resident camps this summer. But lets keep up camp promotion, our facilities are capable of handling more and it continues to build our program.
